

Animals as Allies

Discover Your Helper
& Power Animals

November
13-15

Chapel Hill, NC

An In-Person, Experiential Class

Guided by Deanna Jenné
and Annie Eagan

Have you ever had the experience of receiving a message from an animal in your dreams or along the trail you're walking? Do you know that they are kin to you in some way?

Join your guides, Deanna Jenné and Annie Eagan, to discover the essence of your power and helper animals. What is their meaning and how do they benefit your life's journey? Throughout time, humans have counted on animal allies to empower and protect. Experience how your animal helpers can deepen and enrich your connection with the natural world.

Annie Eagan and Deanna Jenné have been colleagues for more than 20 years as Mara'akame shamans in the Huichol tradition and Weather Workers in the Nahua tradition. Through the shared experiences of pilgrimage, ceremony, and ritual in these ancestral traditions of Mexico, their relationship is deep and abiding and grounded in the wisdom of their sacred sites. Annie is a healer and an animal communicator and Deanna has offered power animal classes for two decades.
